

The Empathy Suite, Palms Casino Resort, Las Vegas

What do we have here? A one of a kind stay, that's for sure. Explain. This is the extravagant love child of Damien Hirst, the UK's richest living artist (worth a cool £215 million), and the most extra hotel in Vegas: Palms Casino Resort. There's a lot to unpack in that sentence. That's nothing - wait until you hear about the suite. Go on. Spread over two storeys of psychedelic colour, the custom-designed stay features a paint-splattered private bar, a rainbow-coloured pool table and an outdoor pool - plus Pop art wallpaper, coloured custom carpets and a whole lot of marble. Oh, and a pair of sharks suspended in formaldehyde. Sounds ... memorable. It'd want to be - a sleep here costs roughly $290,000 (and there's a minimum two-night policy). Pack your polaroid.
